

End of Year Newsletter SASH December 2016

Welcome everyone to the end of the year Newsletter for 2016!

It's been a great 2016 and we hope you have been able to be a part of it.

Graduation - Class 2015

20 students from the 2015 Course graduated in Feb with Graham Wicks giving us a great history of hypnosis and the society. This group will now be eligible to supervise next year's students if they wish!

2016 Students

This year we had 16 dynamic students who have been such a great group. Good luck with those that are taking exams in December!

Newly introduced: one day course attendance

Students just graduated can now attend the course the following year for free (if space available) by just sending us an email.

For General Members, if space available, you can also sit in on the day of your choice with only 3 days' notice for just $50/day.

Faculty

Nothing can be achieved without our team of people who are part of the SASH faculty. In 2016 over 13 days we had:

- 41 topics given by 22 lecturers and
- 15 supervisors supervising 47 hours

A big thank you to our faculty members!

Jacqueline Wiseman was awarded the Graham Wicks Prize 2015

Students Class of 2016

From the Day 1 to a curry day 13

There wouldn't be a course without our presenters:

AGM 4th Nov 2016

A most enjoyable evening at the Hackney Hotel, hosted by our acting chair, Celia Whittle.

The society had great pleasure in awarding Honorary Life Membership to Daphne Goldsworthy and Bob Wadsworth, presented to them by the esteemed, Graham Wicks.

Mike Goldblatt, our guest speaker, gave a fascinating talk of his journey to using hypnosis; an anaesthetist who went from sceptic to enthusiast!

It was good to see many familiar faces on the night with a special welcome to our current students who were able to attend!

Introduction Day to Hypnosis for Clinicians

5th Nov 2017: A great taste for the 2017 course, with many speakers talking about their own applications of Hypnosis.

The SASH Committee

This year we have had to say good bye to Daphne Goldsworthy, Lee Heath, Mark McHugh as Chair and Sue Stefanovic. All have contributed and especially Daphne and Sue who have given years of dedication to the committee.

We thank them all for their hard work!

Also a special mention to our last member to leave us at our AGM, Adrian Booth, who finished after his 6 years on the committee having been president of SASH 2012-2014. Adrian's steady guidance, common sense and dedication will be missed. Thank you Adrian!

This means, this dynamic committee have new members joining this year: Ayesha Mohamed, Bronwyn Parker, Lindsay Harrington, Johanna Saltis and Catherine Mahoney.
